To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is written to offer my highest recommendation of Kenneth Kamping. Ken was a student teacher with me during his spring semester of 2020. He came into his student teaching experience ready and eager to work hard and that is exactly what he did.

Ken is a hard working young man who participates in many music/education activities including, arranging for multiple marching bands, writing drill for marching bands, trumpet performer in musicals, Drum Corps instructor and a full time student. Not only does he write drill and arrange these shows, but he his the head instructor for these marching bands as well. This is a workload that would intimidate most, but he takes it in stride and works hard to be the best educator and musician he can be.

Ken's character is extremely evident; he is a perceptive, dedicated and diligent individual with a self-disciplined motivation towards achievement. His success as a musician and educator stem directly from the experiences he has gained from being such a well rounded individual.

I feel confident that Ken will continue to succeed in his career. He has proven to be a take-charge person who is able to successfully develop plans and implement them.

Ken is a very personable young man and has a wonderful rapport with those around him. He had an immediate impact on my students as a student teacher. While he can carry his own weight, Ken readily accepts constructive criticism and learns from it.

I can state without qualification that Ken has the intelligence, ability and good old fashioned drive to succeed at a task or attain any goal he sets his mind to. It is for these reasons I offer my highest recommendation for Kenneth Kamping without reservation.

Sincerely,

Paul Caputo
